

■ INTO THE LIGHT

Roisin Fitzpatrick's 'Artist of the Light' will be exhibiting at La Luna Gallery, Washington DC and The Irish American Heritage Museum, Albany, New York in the coming months. Her highly individual work has been widely acclaimed. She illustrates the interconnectedness of light from the dawn of time to the present day, ranging from pre-historic art to nature, to the stars in astronomy and the Celtic mythology of the Tuatha de Danann, the 'shining ones' or 'people of the speckled light', all with a uniquely personal and contemporary aspect. Roisin Fitzpatrick:

3

Washington: until 30 March;

Albany: 8 May - 30 June